FROM THE DIRECTOR

While I was growing up in Cloquet, I always looked forward to the holidays. Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's Eve all held something special. Each holiday was different, and yet, similar. Among the things I knew would happen each year, visits and celebratory meals with relatives and parties with close family friends and relatives were always met with eager anticipation. Often, those gatherings included loved ones we didn't see often and those times were extra-special.

Those long-ago memories were sparked as I first read "A Doublewide, Texas Christmas." Yes, it is a wonderful farce, but beneath the mayhem and madness is the hope of one young girl to be able to meet her father, a father she has never known. Each of our characters has his or her own vision and wish for Christmas.

For nearly two years now, the whole world has been longing for, praying for, and fighting for answers to a devastating pandemic. Hopes have risen and fallen more times than most of us can even count. But we are back here at the Encore! enjoying a play! All of us at County Seat Theater Company hope a little laughter and a warm holiday message will bring you all a bit of the "magic of Christmas."

Enjoy the show! Larry
