FROM THE DIRECTOR

Theater has had a history of excluding women and women's voices. Case in point: even the female characters in Shakespeare's time were all played by men! That, of course, is no longer the practice, as women have taken their rightful place on the stage. More recently, we've been hearing more and more female voices in all areas of life. It's so important to hear different stories from different perspectives.

For this show in particular, these talented women get to "flip the script" by performing ALL of the roles -- female and male. They deftly disclose their characters through their own lenses. I've enjoyed sitting back and watching them play .. and laughing my butt off. It's amazing what you can experience when every voice can be heard.

Greg J. Anderson

County Seat Theater Land Acknowledgment

County Seat Theater would like to acknowledge that together in this space and on this land, we have gathered on traditional, ancestral, and contemporary lands of indigenous people. Ceded by the Ojibwe in an 1854 treaty, this land holds great historical, spiritual, and personal significance for its original stewards, the Native nations and peoples of this region. We recognize and respect the Fond du Lac Band of Lake Superior Chippewa as they identify themselves through tribal sovereignty, treaty rights, cultural resilience and relationships. We offer our gratitude to all the elders of the past, to those with us today and to those to come in the future, for their stewardship of this land and for their rich cultural legacy.
