FROM THE DIRECTOR

There is nothing like a holiday or family gathering to bring out the good, the bad, and the often ugly side of human relationships. On the other hand, despite the challenges, we would not want to be without those gatherings. The amazing thing is that those gatherings can also provide an opportunity for the repair of relationships and for second chances. Christmas Belles gives us a fun look at relationships and there are plenty of them to look at. We have sisters, a preacher, a society woman with too many airs, a florist shop owner, a sheriff's deputy, and more. Sure there is a bit of tension and drama, but the love stories overcome all the drama.

So, on behalf of the cast and crew of Christmas Belles, we wish all of you the second chances you need and desire and all the love you need to overcome your dramas. We wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Thanks for coming to see us.

County Seat Theater Land Acknowledgment

County Seat Theater would like to acknowledge that together in this space and on this land, we have gathered on traditional, ancestral, and contemporary lands of indigenous people. Ceded by the Ojibwe in an 1854 treaty, this land holds great historical, spiritual, and personal significance for its original stewards, the Native nations and peoples of this region. We recognize and respect the Fond du Lac Band of Lake Superior Chippewa as they identify themselves through tribal sovereignty, treaty rights, cultural resilience and relationships. We offer our gratitude to all the elders of the past, to those with us today and to those to come in the future, for their stewardship of this land and for their rich cultural legacy.

No Body to Murder

One Act Comedy
by Edith Weiss

Bad news — in the form of severe thunderstorms and an escaped convict — threatens the guests at the Come On Inn of Nova Scotia. By the end of the day, gung-ho aerobics instructor Billie Body is mysteriously murdered during a power outage.

Was it the cook's lemonade that poisoned her, or did someone else have a hand in Body's death?

Who would have the audacity to commit murder under so many noses? Inspector Black, on the scene in search of the escaped convict, has his job cut out for him. As the winds howl, suspicions rage — from Garth the gardener (who weeds with an axe) to an inept doctor on holiday from malpractice suits to a hairdresser who constantly changes her appearance — everyone has a hidden motive to want Billie Body dead. After all, she does have abs "to die for"!
